Excise Police Cite Three Establishments,
Issue 22 Summons Regatta Weekend

Madison, IN – Indiana State Excise Police officers cited three alcoholic beverage establishments and issued 22 summonses Thursday, July 3 through Saturday, July 5 in Madison. Most summonses were for illegal consumption or possession of an alcoholic beverage and juvenile possession of tobacco product.

Tugboats, 115 E. Vaughn Drive, was cited for Employee-No Employee Permit, No Records of Employee Permits, Subterfuge-Off Site Storage

Riverhouse II, 321 S Jefferson Street, was cited for two counts of allowing a minor to loiter. Two separate fifteen year old juveniles were located in the establishment. One produced a false identification, depicting him to be 22 years of age.

Riverboat Inn, 906 E First Street, was cited for change of floor plans without approval and operating outside the scope of their permit.

Indiana State Excise Police worked jointly with Madison Police Department, Indiana State Police, and the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office to have a successful Madison Regatta Weekend.

Indiana State Excise Police offer free training programs for alcohol and tobacco businesses. Future programs are listed on our website at www.in.gov/atc/iseip.

Indiana State Excise Police officers are the enforcement division of the Indiana Alcohol and Tobacco Commission.
